

Web Notes 4/27/08

Web Notes can now be found on the website, as well as in the Bulletin

Please be sure to join our mailing list. You will receive notifications of upcoming events, before they are printed in the Bulletin.

Check out the new Scripture Study page. Your comments and suggestions are welcome. There are links where you can get commentary on the following Sundays readings. These are the sources I use for our Small Christian Community that meets every Wednesday morning, from 10:00am till noon. For more information contact Ann Finley at 261-1077 ext 208 (there are other groups that meet at different times)

Have you checked out the Conference Room yet? If you haven't, please do. I am planning to open it soon to answer any questions you might have about computers. If you have any problems getting in the room, send an email to Webmaster@SaintAnthonyofPadua.org If you have any area that you would like help, let me know. I am making some training videos. Check the website.
